VANCOUVER RACE WAR GROWS MORE SERIOUS.

Whites and Orientals Clear Stores of Stocks of Firearms.

Feeling on Both Sides Is Increasing, and It Is Expected That Next Conflict Will Result in Great Loss to Life and Property—Complications Between Great Britain and Japan Anticipated.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

VANCOUVER (B. C.) Sept. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Great alarm is felt here over the anti-Japanese riots, and even more serious trouble is expected.

The steamer Montague, with several hundred Japanese on board, is due here Wednesday or Thursday, and fears are entertained that the arrival of the vessel will be the signal for an outbreak that will result in great loss of life.

Both the whites and orientals are buying arms, and when the next clash comes it will be a bloody one.

During the riots of Saturday and Sunday the windows of about fifty Japanese stores were broken, two Japanese and three whites were injured, and nineteen whites were arrested for rioting.

THOUSANDS JOIN IN RIOT.

The disturbance Sunday night was participated in by about 10,000 persons, and these were not confined to working classes, although laboring men were in the large majority.

The temper of the crowd evidently was not a desire for bloodshed, but rather an inclination to give a strong demonstration of feeling against the continued and constantly increasing invasion of Canada by orientals, and especially by the Japanese.

TEMPER OF CROWD CHANGES.

In view of the fact that the Japanese began the purchase of arms after the disturbance of Saturday night, and last night showed a disposition to engage in a serious clash, the demeanor of the rioters underwent a change, with the prospect that the next outbreak will be costly in lives as well as property.

The gravity of the situation was increased today by the refusal of Japanese to resume employment in restaurants, hotels and mills. The little brown men devoted the day to purchasing arms and ammunition, and barricading their houses and places of business.

BOYCOTT IS BEGUN.

A number of restaurant-keepers and other business men met today and resolved that hereafter they would employ none but white labor and not patronize stores kept by orientals. During the riot last night Kikujiro Ishii, Chief of the Bureau of Foreign Commerce and head of the Japanese consular service, and Consul Saburo Hiramatsu, of Seattle, were the central figures. Numerous people were bruised and injured by broken bottles and flying bricks in the hands of a mob in the throes of frenzy. Baron Ishii and Consul Hiramatsu finally made their escape through the mob and the affair was immediately cabled to Tokyo.

Government Seriously Considering Ceasing to Try to Build Warships at San Francisco Navy Yards Because of Labor Troubles.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The officials at the Navy Department are seriously considering the proposition to cease further construction of warships at Mare Island because of the present inability of the government to secure the necessary skilled labor.

While it is stated at the bureau of construction and repairs that the question has not reached a stage to be called serious, it is nevertheless true that those who have watched the progress and development of such ships as have been built at the Mare Island Navy Yard are anything but pleased over the results obtained.

UNENDING LABOR TROUBLES.

In nearly every instance, labor troubles have arisen which have retarded the progress of the construction of ships for the navy and it has come to such a pass that the government feels impelled to use some strenuous measures if further recognition in this respect is to be given the Pacific Coast.

When the movement of the Atlantic fleet to the Coast was first contemplated by President Roosevelt and the officials at the head of the Navy Department, this scarcity of labor on the Pacific Coast was among the first points given consideration in connection with the transportation of the fleet to the Pacific. It was pointed out that such a large body of fighting vessels would necessarily have to undergo repairs from time to time and that skilled laborers would be necessary to do this work.

WORK DELAYED.

Attention was called to the fact that for many months an appropriation of $1,250,000 has been available for the construction at the Mare Island Navy Yard of a 600-ton collier, to be known as the Prometheus. All the material for the construction has been assembled at the yard and everything in readiness to begin work, but the department has been unable to find the necessary help in the way of skilled laborers to perform the task.

This shortage of labor at the Mare Island Navy Yard is not only preventing the building of the collier, which is very much needed in the service, but is delaying completion of the armored cruisers California and South Dakota, and the repair work on the Marblehead.

WAITING ON METCALF.

The return of Secretary of the Navy Metcalf to Washington will probably determine just what course the department is going to pursue regarding the further construction of ships on the Pacific Coast.

Secretary Metcalf has been in California and has given the fullest investigation to the labor situation on the Coast. It has been settled, however, that if men cannot be found in the West to do the necessary work, skilled laborers will be imported from the East who will be willing to perform such service as is required of them by the government.

The repairs to the ships "cannot be delayed and there is a lot of other work which will have to be kept in proper shape for the work expected of it when it reaches the Pacific Coast."

FLEET MAY GO WHERE IT WILL.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] "Out in Iowa we feel that we have a right to send the fleet anywhere we please," was the statement made here today by Representative Hull of Iowa, chairman of the House Committee on Military Affairs, in speaking about the decision to send the Atlantic fleet to the Pacific Coast. Continuing, Col. Hull said:

"If any nation has a chip on its shoulder and does not want us to send our vessels where we please, the sooner we find it out the better. We certainly have a right to send the fleet to any of our possessions, and no nation has a right to assume that such action is a threat, and unless such a nation is contemplating a violent act it is not a threat."

"The eastern people seem to be afraid that if the ships go, their coast will be bombarded. It strikes me that the citizens of Boston and New York are under the impression that warships are built only for them, and not for the whole country. The movement of the fleet will be a splendid demonstration of the navy's power, not only to Japan, but to all the world. If Japan takes umbrage at it, it would show, to my mind, that they want to complain of something they have no business to complain of. They have no business to give up what it has; it is more likely to reach out for more."

Mr. Hull, in speaking about the Philippines, stated that we are not going to give self-government to the Philippines. "We are going to keep them," he declared, "and some day, if they are fit to govern themselves, they will have a government like our territories. They will not be fit for this for fifty years, and in the meantime, we must stop this independence talk among the half-baked people over there."

SAN BERNARDINO, Sept. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Though Los Angeles was beaten again today by the men of the San Bernardino Mountains and plains, in the struggle of brawn against brawn and nerve against nerve, the girls of the Angel City won a silken bear flag for the best showing in the great Admission Day parade.

Nobly was the natal day of the Golden State observed, and the formal exercises in the streets of the city and at Urrita Springs did not constitute the greater part of the splendid celebration. Wherever a group of Native Sons and Daughters foregathered, the celebration was carried on with all the spirit the occasion demanded.

A platoon of San Bernardino police led the parade, followed by the local band. Next came the carriage of Mayor Harford, bearing also the visiting Mayor.

Rose cart and hook-and-ladder truck, next in line, won hearty applause from the gaily-dressed crowds which thronged the way on either side, applause which the fire company was soon to show was well deserved.

Laughter rippled through the ranks of the spectators, breaking presently into cheers, as a wagon which had crossed the unmarked plains in its coming into view. A fire was burning at the front end of the wagon, on an open hearth of flat stones, and above it rested a dilapidated frying pan in which an aged woman prepared "flapjacks" for the morning meal. For so they traveled in the olden days, waiting no time, those pioneers who laid the foundation of greatness for the Golden State.

Swinging from the stay-ropes of the tent-house, which covered two-thirds of the wagon, were ancient iron lanterns in which stumps of candles were set. The coffee pot, too, which hung at the side of the little fire, had shared that first long journey of the pioneers.

Oriel Miller, dressed in a suit no second-hand clothing merchant would buy, which the aged pioneer none the less holds precious, sat at the door of the tent-house, as he had sat in the same clothes more than half a century ago. Mary Miller fried the "flapjacks," while two children hung at her skirts. John Brown, Jr., Mary Crandall, Annie Alexander, Nathan Wilson and George Miller made up the group on the foot called "Pioneers' Camp Wagon Crossing the Plains."

The phase of California development which preceded the great rush of the early immigrants, continuing long afterward, was recalled by a wagon on which five men were gathered about a heap of gravel, working busily with the crude implements of early placer mining in the West. The youngest of the men on this float, Sidney P. Watts, was 44 years, while the oldest, G. W. Suttonfield, was 82. Robert Fougere, De La M. Woodward and W. F. Holcomb were the others.

The Veterans' Drum and Fife Corps of Los Angeles, led by G. W. Wolff, a pioneer, followed the floats, and then came the Native Daughters of the Los Angeles Parlor.

A ripple of applause greeted them as they appeared, all along the line, while shouts and cheering greeted them as they came abreast.

KAISER GIVES FRANCE A FORMAL WARNING.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

PARIS, Sept. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Kaiser has warned France that Germany will permit no departure from the terms of the Algeiras convention, in plain English, France is notified that her hands are tied; that she may suppress the uprising against foreigners in Morocco if she can, without exceeding the limitations of that convention, which were framed with no thought of such a crisis as now presents itself, and which does not countenance anything more than a mere police patrol of the coast cities.

The attitude of the German government adds to the difficulty of the French position. The time has arrived when only prompt and drastic action, in the opinion of French statesmen, will prevent a long and bloody struggle between the Moslems of Morocco and the foreign nations who have interests there. If France does not act quickly and decisively the situation may easily get beyond her control.

The Kaiser's announcement has destroyed the good effect of the conference between M. Cambon and Chancellor von Buelow.

The Cabinet will meet again tomorrow to discuss the new diplomatic phase of the crisis.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A.M.)

PARIS, Sept. 9.—A special meeting of the Cabinet was held today for the purpose of considering the Moroccan situation. The following conclusions were reached:

"The Moroccan government should be held responsible for the massacre of July 30 at Casa Blanca, as well as for the damages suffered as a result of the pillage or repression of the disorders. The indemnities should be fixed by an international commission."

These conclusions are based on the precedent established after the bombardment of Alexandria by the British fleet in 1882.

The Cabinet requested Foreign Minister Pichon to examine the general question of Morocco and to prepare a note on the subject to be issued as soon as possible.

VANCOUVER RACE WAR.

PROBLEM IS SERIOUS FOR GREAT BRITAIN.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) LONDON, Sept. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] News of the attacks on Japanese and Chinese at Vancouver, B. C., did not surprise the Colonial and Foreign Office officials here.

At the same time, the officials realize a most serious problem has arisen, particularly as the feeling appears to be strongest against the subjects of Great Britain's eastern ally, and that it will require most careful handling for whatever action is taken is likely to be resented, either by the colony or by Japan. The question has been the subject of consultation for some time by the Imperial authorities, who have used their good offices on numerous occasions to prevent the enactment of anti-Japanese legislation by British Columbia.

It is understood that the matter was discussed at length during the recent visit of the colonial Premier to London, the Australians being as much opposed to admission of Asiatics as the Canadians. No steps were taken at the time, however, and the subject was allowed to lapse until the agitation was revived. All the Cabinet Ministers are out of town at present, but the Colonial and Foreign Office officials are seeking to obtain all the information possible from the subject of the Vancouver outbreak, with the view of taking some action, the nature of which is difficult to surmise.

COMES AS A BOOMERANG. The attack on the Japanese and Chinese at Vancouver, B. C., places the English newspapers in an embarrassing and amusing position. Several of the most prominent of them were particularly severe upon the San Francisco "Japbaiters" when the outbreak occurred there. They are now confronted with a most serious situation in a British colony, where the subjects they are at a loss what to say. The majority remain silent. The Times, whose American correspondent severely and repeatedly denounced the San Francisco action toward the Japanese, is the only morning paper commenting on the Canadian demonstration. The paper deplores "that it is not at present obvious how a permanent amelioration of the situation is to be effected." It is an opinion which is entirely to labor-union agitation, and ridicules the idea that a few thousand Japanese are likely to turn British Columbia or California into Mongolian provinces.

The Fall Mail Gazette, the only afternoon newspaper to take an opinion on the subject, takes a direct opposite view saying:

"The Asiatic makes his entry into Canada under the auspices of the God of cheapness. He comes with an offer to take work at half the rate or less than paid for white men's labor, an arrangement which means the loss of a great advance upon the scale of remuneration enjoyed in his own country." In competition of this character the Canadian believes, and all economic reasoning seems to support him, that his own standards of life are certain to be depleted and destroyed.

Continuing, the Fall Mail Gazette points out that the Bellingham and Vancouver outbreaks show "that popular animosities of the racial type are not necessarily the outcome of wrong-doing, unprovoked depravity," adding: "It can scarcely occur to the homekeeping Englishman how slight an expansive effort on the part of the swarming populations of the Far East would suffice to swamp the Western States and provinces of the American continent."

Referring to British Columbia, with only 3 per cent of its territory populated, the Fall Mail Gazette says: "If in Vancouver, B. C., is published in a special cablegram to the Asahi this morning. This is the only one of the English, or vernacular papers, which mentions the affair. While awaiting further details the Asahi refrains from editorial comment. The published dispatch, which is from Mr. Ishihara, is brief and it expresses the opinion that the trouble is over.

The Japanese press and officials generally show no disturbance over the immigration question, and it is conceded in official circles here that the Vancouver riots to property of the Japanese are perfectly clear as to the rights of the Japanese in Canada. The treaty says:

"The subjects of each of the two high contracting parties shall have full liberty to enter, travel, or reside, in any part of the Dominion and possessions of the other contracting party, and shall enjoy full and perfect protection for their persons and property."

BELLINGHAM POLICE RESENT CRITICISM.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) BELLINGHAM (Wash.) Sept. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] This city has resumed a normal aspect and no further trouble is feared unless some of the Hindus return to the city.

In several pulpits yesterday the police were criticized for their inactivity during the progress of the riots.

The police bitterly resent these attacks, and claim that in view of the temper of the mob which drove the Hindus from town a display of force by the police would have resulted in a massacre.

Attention now is directed to Vancouver, and developments there are watched with interest.

CANADA EXPECTS TO APOLOGIZE AND PAY.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) OTTAWA, Sept. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The general opinion in official circles is that Canada will have to apologize to Japan and pay damages caused by the Vancouver riots resulting in the destruction of property of the Japanese in that city.

Regret is expressed that the outbreak should have taken place at a time when the Japanese immigration question was all but solved between the governments of Canada and Japan.

R. U. Scott, Secretary of State, said that the treaty between Canada and Japan, ratified by the Canadian Parliament at its last session, was perfectly clear as to its rights of the Japanese in Canada. The treaty says:

"The subjects of each of the two high contracting parties shall have full liberty to enter, travel, or reside, in any part of the Dominion and possessions of the other contracting party, and shall enjoy full and perfect protection for their persons and property."

The treaty was not adopted in a hurry," said Mr. Scott. "There was no protest from British Columbia, or anywhere else against Canada passing the treaty."

JAP JINGO HOWLS EXPECTED TO CEASE.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A feeling of satisfaction and relief was mingled with the regret with which officials of the State Department learned today of the outbreak committed by a mob in Vancouver under the British flag, on the Diplomats who will consider Vancouver riots.

persons and property of Japanese residents, with a special agent of the Mikado looking on and dodging brickbats.

Immediate cessation of the Jingo howls from Japan against the so-called San Francisco outrages is expected. Plans for sending the big battleship fleet to the western coast and possibly to the Orient will go on without further fear of the move being regarded by Japan as hostile. The Canadian riots were so much worse than anything that ever happened in San Francisco, it is not expected the latter will again be mentioned except as mere incidents.

The path of the State Department in reconciling Japanese protests and San Francisco race prejudice has suddenly been smoothed. It is expected the coolie question will be settled quickly and satisfactorily. Labor conditions on the western coast, both in British and United States territory, seem to demand the exclusion of yellow-skinned competitors, and as a hint of the most powerful nations in the world, little protest is expected from Japan.

JAPANESE ARE QUICK TO LODGE PROTEST.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) GENEVE, Sept. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] International complications will result from the attacks upon the Japanese residents and their property by the Vancouver mob.

Official protest has been made to the Canadian government and to the government at London. The presence of Baron Ishihara at Vancouver caused the protest to be lodged without delay.

The fact that the Vancouver riots were much more serious than those at San Francisco and that the latter were sufficient to cause anti-Japanese agitation in Japan, makes government officials fear that the friendship between British and Japanese governments is imperiled.

JAP JINGOS THUS FAR REMAIN QUIESCENT.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.) TOKIO, Sept. 9.—The most meager account of the anti-Japanese riots in Vancouver, B. C., is published in a special cablegram to the Asahi this morning.

This is the only one of the English, or vernacular papers, which mentions the affair. While awaiting further details the Asahi refrains from editorial comment. The published dispatch, which is from Mr. Ishihara, is brief and it expresses the opinion that the trouble is over.

CANADA MAY HAVE TO PAY JAPAN INDEMNITY.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.) OTTAWA (Ont.) Sept. 9.—The general opinion in official circles is that Canada will have to pay and apologize to Japan for damages caused by the Vancouver riots resulting in the destruction of property of the Japanese in that city.

Regret is expressed that the outbreak should have taken place at a time when the Japanese immigration question was all but solved between the governments of Canada and Japan.

R. U. Scott, Secretary of State, said that the treaty between Canada and Japan, ratified by the Canadian Parliament at its last session, was perfectly clear as to its rights of the Japanese in Canada. The treaty says:

"The subjects of each of the two high contracting parties shall have full liberty to enter, travel, or reside, in any part of the Dominion and possessions of the other contracting party, and shall enjoy full and perfect protection for their persons and property."

ISHIHARA SENDS REPORT TO OTTAWA OFFICIALS.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.) MONTREAL, Sept. 9.—The following telegram has been received by Consul General Noyes at Ottawa from Mr. Ishihara, Director of Commerce and Trade, Department of Foreign Affairs of Japan, who is at present in British Columbia studying the anti-Japanese movement in that province:

"VANCOUVER (B. C.) Sept. 8.—Having arrived at Vancouver at 1 o'clock p.m. on September 7, I found that during the early part of the evening there was held a demonstration of the Anti-Japanese League at about 9 o'clock p.m., and a number of rowdy elements of the city were in the section of the city where the stores kept by the Japanese and Chinese are, three stones, breaking considerable glass.

"Following this attack there came another one, this time the number being increased to about 500 and the fronts of several of the stores were broken. So far as I can ascertain, only one Japanese was wounded. The police forces did their best, but there is hardly any hope of relief in that direction. Consul Morioka is staying at the seat of the disturbance, trying to impress upon the city police to extend their protection over the Japanese residents and at the same time to suppress the almost excitement of the Japanese. There may be no further disturbances."

Mr. Ishihara's hope was unfortunately not fulfilled, as late last night the Consul wired the following telegram from Consul Morioka:

"VANCOUVER (B. C.) Sept. 8.—In continuation of a message sent by Mr. Ishihara, I have to report that a fourth attack was made by the rowdy about midnight in the Japanese quarter. Twice again they tried to attack the Japanese stores, but on account of the vigilance of the Japanese and the Japanese police, the attack was repulsed. The number of Japanese gradually decreased, and by 3 o'clock Sunday morning the rowdies scattered everywhere and the tranquility was restored by dawn. The damage done to the Japanese stores is as follows:

"General stores, 1; hotels, 9; candy and confectionery shops, 5; bathhouses, 3; barber shops, 5; shoemakers, 3; banking office, 1; newspaper office, 1; employment office, 4; restaurant, 1; mill, 1; hat shop, 1; tailor, 3; watchmaker, 1. Of these fifty stores, all the windows and doors were smashed. Two Japanese were wounded."

Consul-General Noyes will lay all the facts before Mr. Wilfrid Laurier, Premier of Canada.

ISHIHARA CAME TO STUDY STATUS OF JAPANESE.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.) NEW YORK, Sept. 9.—Kikujiro Ishihara, the director of the commercial bureau of the Japanese Foreign Office, who was involved in the anti-Japanese riot at Vancouver last Saturday night, came to this country to investigate and report on the recent anti-Japanese demonstrations in San Francisco.

While this was given out as the specific object of his visit, it is generally understood that his mission was to ascertain the cause and extent of whatever prejudices may exist against the Japanese in this country, and to ascertain the conditions arising from the recent influx of Japanese and Hindus into the Northwest and the resulting disturbance of labor conditions.

Pennsylvania Man Shakes "Bones" Until Several Hundred Dollars in Debt, Then Hazards His Existence on a Single Throw—Tries to Jump from Bridge, but is Caught.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) BELLEVILLE (Pa.) Sept. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Frank Jefferson, a well-known young man of this place, has been put under bond to prevent him from taking his own life to pay a bet which he lost.

For some time Jefferson and Johnson have been in the habit of shaking dice for money. Johnson won and finally Jefferson owed him several hundred dollars. Johnson wanted to stop, but Jefferson insisted on continuing. Then Johnson threw a stake unless Jefferson put up a stake.

Jefferson finally staked his life on a single throw. It was Johnson who was to pay him $10 and cancel his debt. If he lost he was to kill himself. Johnson took first throw and turned up a pair of fives. Jefferson shook the box carefully, but got only a pair of deuces.

Without a word Jefferson left the room and hurried to the bridge across the Monongahela River. Johnson gave the alarm and friends caught Jefferson just as he was about to jump into the river.

He was placed under bond to keep the peace. Johnson has told him that he could "shake it."

Mother and Daughter Taken to Detention Hospital as Result of San Francisco Temblor.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.) CHICAGO, Sept. 9.—The San Francisco catastrophe of last summer was recalled last night in the commitment to the Detention Hospital of a mother and daughter, two victims who lost their all.

The women, Mrs. Tillie Levenberg, 50, and her daughter, Julie Levenberg, 18, were taken to the hospital from the home of George Connor, No. 1444 Clifton avenue, a stepson of Mrs. Levenberg. They arrived in Chicago a month ago, going to Connor's home.

"My stepmother and stepfather were greatly affected by their experience in the San Francisco disaster," said Connor. "It was not so much the loss of their valuable as the scenes of death and misery they witnessed."

According to Connor, another daughter, Mabel, is on her way to Chicago, and on her arrival she will take her mother and sister in custody and take them to San Jose.

ANOTHER BANK VICTIM.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) CHICAGO, Sept. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] While Paul O. Stensland is preparing his plea for liberty, to be presented to the board of pardons on Friday, arrangements are being made for the burial of the sixth person who has died as a result of the failure of the Milwaukee-avenue bank. Fitful is the story of Miss Francis Kowalski, who pined away after the failure, and the suicide of her crippled brother, who was savings clerk for Stensland.

It was the last of a series of deaths which had been heaped upon the girl's family because her brother happened to be an employee of the banker which started her on the road to an early grave. Ever since the death of her brother she has been in a state of melancholia.

NATIVES' RED DAY.

battalion, the men of La Plota Parlor, dressed in white duck and wearing Mexican hats draped with American flags, went the most coveted trophy of the day. This was a silver flag, the Stars and Stripes, but with fewer stars on the field of blue than are seen today. Thirty silver stars are there, and in the midst a golden star to symbolize the entrance of the thirty-first into the sisterhood of States. It was given for the best showing made in the parade.

The San Bernardino boys were next in the line, dressed in khaki costumes with bright red sashes about their waists, and with them came the tug-of-war team, against which nine Native Sons from the Angel City were to struggle later in the day.

The living emblem of the Golden State, a great black bear, took part in the parade, chained to a wagon.

The day was hot, for brush fires still burned in the mountains supplementing the fervent sun, and marchers and watchers perspired freely, yet scarcely seemed to notice it.

For many minutes in the center of the city the air was cooled in the course of a sensational exhibition run of the hose wars.

TONY'S PULL.

Tony Schwam, who found everything so delightful that he had refused to waste a moment in sleep last night, was allowed to pull the rope and sound the siren fire alarm. A rush of horses sounded through the quivering, heated air. Policemen shouted hoarse warnings, and the crowd which had filled the streets when the parade had passed, surged back to the sidewalks.

In a whirl of dust they came, spinning out the leaping, quivering horse behind them. Men and girls, in the midst of flight from the danger zone, stopped short and whirled about to applaud and cheer.

Four minutes after the siren screamed, three strong streams of water, blown into spray above the highest walls, were driving the heat from the city.

More than one unwary person received a dash of spray. They laughed. It was a day for laughter.

Early in the afternoon the exodus began. Long lines of coupled cars left the city, packed to their extreme capacity with the celebrators, bound for Uplift Springs Park, where a literary programme, barbeque and sports had been arranged. Hundreds walked the long mile, in spite of the heat, rather than lose any part of the excitement.

Of the several addresses given, only one suggested triteness and bombast. The little speeches of the two Mayors sparked with wit.

Mayor Hanford began by saying that some one has expressed pride at being a native son.

MAYOR'S ADDRESS.

"That is a matter for thankfulness," he said, "but it cannot be said that it is any credit to any one to be a Native Son or Daughter. The credit belongs to the parents, especially the mothers, who came here, many of them, when it was not so easy a journey as it is now. To these gray-haired men and women—the pointed behind him, without looking, at Mayor Harper's beautiful black toupee—belongs the credit." In happy vein he continued, interrupted again and again by applause. He traced the march of the pioneers who made the southward trail, across the alkali deserts of Utah and Nevada, through the Cajon Pass into the valley of San Bernardino.

"Take a long look at them here on this platform," he said earnestly. "They will soon be gone."

He paid a tribute to Mayor Harper, and presented the visitor with a huge golden key, the key of the city.

A pandemonium of delight broke loose in the packed throng about the platform, with shouting, cheering and a blended roar of horns.

Frank G. Tyrrell arose to introduce the Los Angeles Mayor, saying:

"Mayor Harper, of course, admits that the executive affairs of Los Angeles are not run exactly as they should be, so he came here to get some pointers, where everything, manifestly, is done exactly right."

Mayor Harper smoothed his toupe with one hand as he arose.

HARPER'S HITS.

"Mayor Hanford gave us an excellent address," he said, "but I cannot imagine why he should have pointed at me when he spoke of gray-haired men." After an interruption from the crowd, the speaker went on:

"I am just 41" [Another interruption.] "I have enjoyed myself like a boy out here. Our big, stalwart ball team wrestled with defeat, and though I could not bear to stay and watch it, I was not cast down."

"There has been something doing every moment of the day and yesterday, and Tony Schwam tells me that there was something doing all night."

"More than forty years ago, when I used to stand at the door of the hotel in Los Angeles, watching the stage come in from San Bernardino, I thought the place that stage came from, with so many fine horses, must be the biggest place in the world. Yesterday and today I have been made to feel that my guess was not a bad one."

He condemned the idea of State division, evoking applause from the crowd in general. He confidently predicted a greater and greater California, till, in the fullness of the years, there shall be the greatest California, surpassing all the sister States.

OTHER SPEAKERS.

J. E. Rich, a member of Arrowhead Parlor, sketched the history of early California, the region which became a State without ever having been a Territory; the only State whose birthday was such a tremendous event that it demands celebration.

Mrs. R. G. Rosenbaum gave an address on the Native Daughters.

And then came the rush for the cool shaded dell where two long tables were set, and the barbeque was begun. Though a great number of the visitors to Uplift Springs Park this afternoon carried their lunches, the boys of Arrowhead Parlor, acting as waiters, served nearly 3000 persons. The tables seated 420 at a time, and were filled again and again. Barbequed meat and sliced watermelon were handed over the wire fence to more than 800 picnickers, also, who wanted a taste of the barbeque.

BIG FEED.

John Poppett superintended the gigantic feast.

The only untoward incident of the day occurred when Jack Wilson threw back his head to laugh just as a waiter with a pan of hot beans came up close behind him. Mr. Wilson got the beans, and it was fully two minutes before that laugh came. But it did.

At Retz, in charge of the sports, and on.

GLIMPSES OF SAN BERNARDINO'S PAGEANT.

At top, head of procession; next below, Pioneer Fife and Drum Corps; third from top, Native Daughters, No. 149, Arrowhead Parlor; bottom, Arrowhead Parlor, Native Sons.

superceded John Poppett in the interest of the gathered thousands shortly after 2 o'clock.

At 2:30 o'clock, deeper in the same cool dell, the tug of war teams gathered. The shouting and the laughter died away among the crowds that covered the hillside. There was something deadly serious about the preparations, and about the men who were to compete in the brutal but splendid game.

The teams lay down in their places on the cleared boards, grasping the rope firmly and setting their jaws like waiting bulldogs.

At 2:50 a pistol cracked near the center of the planked way, and a creaking sound came from the rope. A great sigh went up from the multitude, and then it seemed to hold its breath.

THE RED STRING.

Ten thousand eyes were fixed upon the little red string in the center of the rope, thousands of the eyes traveling an inch one way, and other thousands moving the other way, as if the watchers felt they might move that red marker with a compelling glance.

A minute, and another, and the red mark had not moved. On the browned faces of the outdoor workers that made up the home team, huge drops of sweat appeared, and rolled into each other, coursing down in little rivulets, and the brown turned slowly to brick-red.

The whiter faces of the city workers on the other side turned purple, and their lips sucked gaspingly at the air.

And still nothing moved but the laboring breasts of the contestants. The men lay still there, tolling awfully, without motion. And the silent crowds were pained, strained faces while they watched.

Three minutes! The red string moved. A great questioning gasp went up from the crowds. They were not sure.

The red string moved again, and a mighty cheer went up. Los Angeles was winning.

Francis Native Daughters dashed into the opening and began fanning the contestants, cheering them on. More awful grew the strain. The red-faced men held grimly, and the purple-faced men heaved on ropes till their hearts seemed breaking in them—gaining, gaining, gaining!

The men of mountains and plain were harder of muscle and stronger of lung power than the men of the city, but in the mind of all was the will to win.

Los Angeles gained four inches. White-robed Native Daughters bent over and above their heroes, almost weeping over them, but pleading with them all the time to strain still harder. Inch by inch the gain was lost, Capt. John Newell of the Los Angeles team ordered his men to hold, and hold they did, doggedly, but still they lost. More confidently Captain David Young gave his commands, and steadily the marking string moved back, past the center, and on.

At the call of time, San Bernardino had fourteen inches the best of it.

Young Wilson, a driver for the Sun-Set Telephone Company in Los Angeles, was bleeding from the nostrils as he staggered from the cleats. He could not stand, and Charlie Stansbury, though none too strong himself, supported him. The purple faded from their faces, and pallor took its place.

And so the athletic event of the day was lost and won.

The great celebration closed with a dance this evening in the pavilion, which many Angelenos remained to enjoy. The greater number of the visitors, including Mayor Harper, left for Los Angeles on the 5:25 o'clock Salt Lake train.

NEW ORDER.

Up and down the length of a long train passed the Native Sons and Daughters, returning to Los Angeles last evening, still intent on continuing the gay revel as long as groups could be formed, until the last farewells were said.

Shortly after the train passed Pomona, Otto Rech, president of Ramona Parlor, seized Mayor Harper and conducted him through car after car, yelling to the other Native Sons:

"Special meeting!"

The Mayor submitted with good grace and the crowds answered the call.

Others joined, but still the voice of Mayor Harper arose as sweet and strong as any there, in the air of "Auld Acquaintance" and the words:

"We're here because we're here."

The throng professed to be dissatisfied with the arrangement, and the Mayor compromised by singing a song. Others joined, but still the voice of Mayor Harper arose as sweet and strong as any there, in the air of "Auld Acquaintance" and the words:

"We're here because we're here."

BLACK HAND LEADER 'FESSES.

MOTTO OF ORGANIZATION, "DO OUR BIDDING OR DIE."

Italian Admits That He Was Ordered by Head of Famous Pennsylvania Gang of Murderers to Kill Man Who Would Not Pay Tribute to Them.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BUTLER (Pa.) Sept. 2.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] "Do our bidding or die." This is the regular order of the Black Hand Society to its agents, according to confession in open court of Dominic O. Vanzetti, who today pleaded guilty to assault with intent to kill Tony Pasquale of Slippery Rock.

Vanzetti declares that while he was working in Newcastle he was commanded by Tony Condi, leader of the Black Hand, to kill Pasquale, who refused to pay tribute to the society.

"Pasquale was my closest and best friend," declared the Italian, who is accused of trying to murder Pasquale without the least cause. "I didn't want to kill him, so I ran away to Youngstown, O. Condi came there, too, and several Black Hand men came with him. They told me I must kill Pasquale or they would kill me."

Vanzetti then told how he returned to Newcastle, sought Pasquale and, while being welcomed back home, drew a razor across Pasquale's throat.

"I could have killed him," continued Vanzetti, "but I couldn't bear the thought, and ran away again."

Pasquale recovered and Vanzetti was arrested three weeks ago by a detachment of State constabulary, now guarding the mill district against Black Hand outrages.

Condi was killed several weeks ago. When the police made a raid upon the Black Hand headquarters, he fought against arrest. Forty-one other Italians, accused of Black Hand outrages, are listed for trial this week.

GIRL ARRESTED FOR THEFT.

Pretty Newport Maid Accused of Stealing Jewelry from Mrs. Bourke Cochran.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Nellie Wolkowitz, a comely young woman, was arrested this afternoon on a charge of stealing a quantity of jewelry from the wife of former Congressman Bourke Cochran. She was wearing a diamond locket, said by the police to be part of the loot.

It appears that the girl was employed up to Saturday as a maid at the new Cliff Hotel, Newport, where Mrs. Cochran is a guest. When Nellie went away, Mrs. Cochran discovered that her jewelry was missing.

WOMAN DISPLAYS COOLNESS.

Grasps Child and Drops to Floor When Husband Aims Revolver and Opens Fire.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.] WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—Falling in an attempt to effect a reconciliation with his wife, from whom he had been separated, Wellington B. Herbert, 23 years old, last night fired five shots into a crowded room where his wife was seated, slightly wounding her sister, Mrs. George W. Nethy. Several others in the room narrowly escaped being struck.

With one remaining cartridge in his pistol, Herbert turned the weapon upon himself and sent a bullet into his left breast just below the heart. He is not expected to live.

But for the presence of mind of Mrs. Herbert, she undoubtedly would have been killed. Seeing the revolver pointed at her, she grasped one of her young children and threw herself and child prone on the floor. The shot missed her. She crawled toward a door and a second shot passed over her head, striking Mrs. Nethy in the arm. A third shot grazed Mrs. Herbert's cheek.

VICTIMS TORTURED BY ROBBERS.

Fiends Ply Matches to Bare Feet of Aged Illinois Couple, and Suspect Is Arrested.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] SPRINGFIELD (Ill.) The robbers applied lighted matches to their bare feet.

Bloodhounds were put on the trail today and led to the home of Albert Page and Bert White, a coal miner and lumberer, are sought by the authorities on suspicion that they are the other two robbers.

The Most Important Step Ever Taken By Any Advertising Concern in America

The MacIntyre Advertising Co. announces that it has organized an Oriental Department for the purpose of opening up the markets of China and Japan to American manufacturers.

This gives the MacIntyre Advertising Co. the distinction of being the only advertising agency in America with such a feature.

Negotiations are being completed whereby the largest magazines and newspapers of the Orient will make this agency their official American office, through which all American business must pass.

Advertisements will be translated here into Japanese, set up in type, and forwarded to the Oriental publishing houses ready for the press.

This department is under the supervision of Mr. O. E. Odanaka, formerly of the Tokyo Daily News. A graduate of Japan's great university and subsequently of Pomona College, California, Mr. Odanaka has trained himself for the special work of helping American firms make money in the Far East.

The MacIntyre Advertising Co. believes it provides Los Angeles with an advertising organization which is not surpassed in the United States. Unusual ability in originating campaigns has made the MacIntyre advertising service famous throughout the country.

Advertisements placed in all publications in America, Japan and China at publishers' lowest rates.

Advertising campaigns planned and executed.

Advertising literature, booklets, etc., written and printed.

ONE KILLED, THREE HURT.
Automobile Races at Bruno's Island Track Near Pittsburgh Result in Two Serious Accidents.
[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
PITTSBURGH (Pa.) Sept. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] One man was killed and three others were seriously injured in two accidents at a series of automobile races that were held at the Bruno's island track, near this city, today.
The dead man is Rex Halmersten, 25 years old, president of the Automobile Repair Company of this city, who died of a fractured skull, while being taken to a hospital.
Walter Christ, 25 years old, of New York City, who was one of the drivers in the Vanderbilt Cup races at Mineola, L. I., fractured his right arm, and sustained scalp wounds and bruises of the body. It is also feared he has been internally injured.
Clarence Heston, who was mechanic for Halmersten, and was riding with him at the time, received injuries to the spine that are serious, besides bruises and cuts.
ACCUSED OF SHOOTING HUSBAND
Texas Woman Arrested for Slaying
Patrolman, Who Walks Half Block
Before Expiring.
[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
FORT ARTHUR (Tex.) Sept. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Mrs. James Carlin was arrested here on the charge of killing her husband, a patrolman, who was doing night duty. The woman, it is alleged, used a revolver, claims that it was fired accidentally, but Carlin, who is about 40 years old, declared in an antemortem statement that his wife purposely shot him.
The shooting, which occurred this afternoon, was the result of a domestic quarrel.
Carlin was in bed at the time, and his wife took a large six-shooter from the dresser, and fired at him, the ball entering the side of his neck. He arose, partly dressed himself and walked to the doctor's office, half a block away,
where he expired in a few minutes.
RICH GIRL WEDS GREEK POET.
Maid Who Returned from Europe Clad
Only in Single "Classic" Robe Now Bride of Philosopher.
[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
BAR HARBOR (Me.) Sept. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Miss Evelyn Palmer, daughter of Mrs. Robert Abbe of New York, who was a single Greek performer of Tyrian purple and sandals, on her recent return from Europe, was married here today to Angelo Sikellianas, a Greek poet and philosophical writer.
The marriage caused unusual interest,
largely because of the social prominence of the bride's family and her own unconventional ideas in the matter of dress.
Possessed of an independent fortune
in her own right, Miss Palmer has traveled much. On her last voyage she returned from Europe August 31, on the Lorraine, and was the most observed person in the crowded first cabins because her attire was that of a Greek maid of the days when Greece was the home of art and literature.
The couple, it is understood, will go through the remainder of their lives in the costume of ancient Greece, and refuse to wear any tight-fitting garments.

COTTON CROP IS LATE.
Less Than Half Amount Marketed Up to September 1, 1906, Ginned by Same Date This Year.
[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A.M.]
WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.—The Bureau today issued its first bulletin on the cotton report for the season
as shown by returns from the ginners, showing a total of 191,418 bales up to September 1, as compared with 407,551 bales up to the same period last year.
In this statement round bales are counted as half bales. The great falling off is attributed to the lateness of the crop.
The Department of Agriculture reports cotton average 72.7, as compared them. Fairbanks stands as good as show as any other man.

"I met Fairbanks promoters in Council Bluffs, and, for that matter, right here in Omaha. In Iowa both sides are trying to hang on to the coat tail of President Roosevelt.
"As a whole the situation looks hopeful for Indiana's choice.

LUSITANIA PROVES SPEEDY.
New Ocean Greyhound on Her First Voyage, Overtakes and Passes Olester Ship.

NEW YORK, Sept. 9.—Dispatches by wireless telegraph from the steamer Lusitania, one of the giant ships that is expected to break a record in making the trip between England and the United States and return, gives some details how the steamer is acting on her first voyage. One wireless message says:
"The Lusitania traveled at no great pace at first but the absence of vibration was so noticeable that it made the passengers believe that they were living in a hotel. Afterward the pace was increased. The Lusitania, which left Liverpool four hours ahead of us, was overtaken and passed at 2:30 Sunday morning. She had half an hour start of us leaving Queenstown."

The girl was last seen after midnight woman whose name is not known to the police, and George F. Frissel and built up to a successful plant. The funeral will be held at Harrington, ruining the chances of one team. As both high and low power machines were in, Derkum had to be picked up by a slow rider, who could not do the trick. There was to be a full change every mile, as in a relay race.

Greiner won the first mile, Hoag the second, and Greiner the third. The time of 6:30 would indicate a slow speed, but time was lost each mile in changing contestants.

START FLAT-TIRED.
In the obstacle race, another of the symphonic order, each motorcycle was brought to the starting point with flat tires. Then, at pistol signal each man pumped up both tires to the right pressure, replaced valve caps and started. The quickest man had done the first mile before the others had finished pumping. A. Greiner won, E.
W. Hoag was second, and Parmelee third. Nearly seven minutes was required to make the two miles.

The free-for-all-five-mile race was a body's until the fourth mile. On the first mile Riden led strong, but at the end of the second mile Hoag had jumped into first place, and at the third mile Blaylock led and was leading head.

Motorcycle Reception.
The Los Angeles Motorcycle Club held open house to all motorcyclists in the city and adjoining towns, last evening, serving light refreshments.
Speeches were delivered by visiting motorcyclists and all voiced the satisfaction over the first motorcycle race meet held on the Pacific Coast.

LOOLOS BREAK EVEN WITH THE SAN FRANCISCO SEALS.

Winning Run Made by Northerners When Side Should Have Been Retired on Double Play—Long Uses
New Pitcher Sawyer Who Is Bumped Hard in Second.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] San Francisco and Los Angeles were the attraction at the ball grounds at Freeman Park this afternoon, and when the day was over each had won a game. Both crowds were extraordinarily good, considering the many counter attractions, and the fans who took them in saw two rattling games of ball.

Gray and Henley were working in the morning affair and both pitched big league baseball, with the shade for Gray, even if he did lose. The game ran neck and neck till the ninth inning came along, when the Seals scored the winning run. The game was a jumbled-up affair, with the inning at that and Dillon protested the awarding of the contest to the Seals.

Irwin had reached first on a pass and took second when Spencer was hit by the pitcher. Williams sacrificed and Street flew out to Cravath. Seals was sent to the bat for Strick and hit to Delmas. He passed the ball to Eager, getting Irwin, and the catcher sent the ball to Dillon, and Moore, who was watching the bases, called "You're out!" Spencer meanwhile crossed the plate and the run was allowed, yet everybody thought a double play had been made which would have retired the Seals.

In the afternoon Long trotted out his new man, Sawyer, which was hardly right considering he had only been in town a little while, and he got a merry bumping from the Angels in the few innings that he occupied the box. Three runs were scored by the Southerners at the very opening of the game on three singles and a double; then a walk, hit by pitcher and a single netted another in the second.
Which he was rapped for a double and began to walk more men in the fifth. Long thought Sawyer had better go to the bench and try if he could do any better. The Seals made came day. Willis relieved the Canadian and he also received a bumping, yet the Angels only found the plate but once.
The third run the Seals made came in the second and seventh. Irwin walked in the first part of the game and scored on a triple by Melchior, and he romped home on a single that Ellis should have caught. The other was a gift due to a base on balls, an out and an error.

RANCHO DEL PASO BEATEN.
Christopher's Fast Pacer Loses to Little Bill—Santa Ana Driving Club Races.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
SANTA ANA, Sept. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The second meet of the Orange County Driving Club brought out a good Admission Day crowd and seven interesting events were galled off.

The keenest competition was between Rancho del Paso, owned by L.
J. Christopher of Los Angeles, and driven by Sam Murphy, and Little Bill, owned and driven by P. Isner.
Rancho del Paso got the first heat in 2:17, but Little Bill, the favorite, got the second and third in 2:20 1/2 and 2:17.
Another pretty race was in the 2:35 off between J. Ariego's Clara and William Manke's Lucy M. Both animals broke badly and with a heat apiece Lucy M. lost the race by a head-strong gallop in the first quarter of the third heat.

The 4:45 mixed went to P. Beatty's pigs. "There's a Reason."

PATCHES
Why Brown Ones Come on Faces.
I was a woman once can get rid of brown patches on her face by changing her diet it is worth while for other women who care for their complexions to know something of the method.

A lady in Michigan City says that coffee caused the brown patches on her face by first giving her stomach trouble, then putting her nerves out of order, and the result was shown in her complexion.

She quit coffee and began using Postum Food Coffee, and in less than a month the stomach trouble disappeared and within two months her complexion cleared up and is now
fine and rosy.

She speaks of two men at Westfield, Ind., who have both been improved in health by leaving off coffee and taking in its place Postum Food Coffee, also a husband and wife of the same place, who were in poor health and suffered from stomach trouble. They quit coffee and after using Postum a short time the result was natural sleep, return of appetite, and a gain in strength as fast as nature could rebuild.

She gives the names of a number of other persons who have been helped by leaving off coffee and taking Postum Food Coffee.
It is a safe proposition that if any coffee user has stomach or nervous trouble, or bad complexion, he or she can get rid of the trouble by discontinuing coffee and taking Postum Food Coffee. It is easy enough to prove the truth of this by making trial.

LOCAL PRODUCE MARKETS.

Trading was brisk during the few hours the market was open, with prices unchanged. The usual quantity of stuff was marketed in the early and late hours, buyers being early on the spot and snapping up goods owing to early closing hours.

There was no doubt as to better conditions. The product continued in steady demand, with moderate supply and prices very firm at all times.

COPPER STOCK.

THE LONDON-ARIZONA MINE.

The SAFEST, QUICKEST and MOST PROFITABLE thing in the whole field of investment at the present time is

Good Copper Stocks

For instance, here is the record of a few. All but one of these (the North Butte) are, you may say, right at the back door of Los Angeles, over in Arizona and Nevada within the city's proper and natural sphere of financial influence, and the profits on Arizona mines mentioned amounted last year to $30,600,000. (Just think of it—almost millions.)

And yet our beautiful and ambitious city got almost nothing out of that vast wealth we have been absorbed in the fascinating occupation of swapping jack knives among ourselves, declined to interest ourselves in the great copper mines in the great mineral empire of Arizona which by the natural laws of finance and trade should belong to Los Angeles.

Our real estate values would be safer and our financial institutions would be stronger if the annual profits of Arizona's great copper mines coming to reinforce them. Well within three years the great should rank with the best in that great red-metal territory.

The conditions are so favorable that Mr. Charles E. Finney, the founder of the mine for years the general administrative manager of all the vast mine and smelter interests in the United States and Mexico, and naturally from such an experienced and exceedingly conservative and responsible statement, estimates that when the property is put to smelt 3,000 tons of its ore a day, it can earn 100 per cent. a year on the price at which offering of the treasury stock is made—and that it can do that (this is the notable and feature of the statement) with

Copper Selling at 131 Cents a Pound

It couldn't do that unless it could produce its finished copper at as low a cost as any in the world—and the cost of producing the finished metal, laid down in New York, is the final value of a copper mine.

The London-Arizona property covers 1280 acres of a copper deposit which good judges in copper ever opened in Arizona. It can begin to earn dividends very soon. But it cannot big dividends mentioned till the enterprise is in full operation.

The Biggest Thing, The Quickest Thing And the Easiest Thing

in copper ever opened in Arizona. It can begin to earn dividends very soon. But it cannot big dividends mentioned till the enterprise is in full operation.

The London-Arizona Copper Company

Is located at the junction of the Gila and San Pedro rivers in Gila County, Arizona, three miles from Phoenix and Eastern R. R. It contains 68 claims (about 1280 acres), and has, we believe, the good faith, a dependable body equal to 83,000 tons of a self-fluxing, smelting ore, average at least 5 per cent. (100 pounds to the ton) in copper content—a perfectly self-fluxing ore, that can be mined unusually cheaply, transported from the mine to the smelter for 5 cents and dumped right into the furnace without any of the usual expense of "mixing."

We desire most especially to avoid exaggeration in presenting this great property to you. But we believe in absolute good faith that it is

The BIGGEST thing, the QUICKEST thing, and the EASIEST thing in copper ever opened in Arizona.

It is capitalized at $10,000,000, par value of shares, $10.

The price of the first offering is $6. We have maps and the most responsible representation into our office and examine them.

Consolidated Mines Company

STILL IN THE TREASURY AND UNSOLD OVER 1,000,000 SHARES

In our opinion Consolidated Mines stock is selling for less than it is worth. We give reasons for believing it will sell higher, and why we advise you to buy it.

The property consists of 12 claims in the heart of the Randburg mining district—two claims have a record production of $400,000. The majority of these claims immediately adjacent to the Randburg mine, from which millions of dollars have been taken, and which is the largest producers in the whole United States, operating two mills, one of 100 stamps and 30 stamps.

The yellow Aster has some of the largest deposits of free milling ore ever discovered. The Consolidated Mines Company is engaged in driving a cross-cut tunnel, now in of 1030 feet, 1000 feet of which was in granite-diorite. Lately the tunnel has broken formation into a mass of broken up mineralized ledge matter, carrying gold values, showing in a mineralized formation not very far distant from an ore chute, which may be of any moment. The almost certainty of this makes the stock, which is now selling in the market at 3 to 5 cents per share, a very attractive mining speculation. The striking of the ore creates a quick, extensive and permanent advance. The possibility of loss is reduced to a minimum and cannot amount to more than the few cents per share at which you can at the present time chase the stock. The titles to the property are absolutely perfect—four of the claims have been patented, and seven will be patented before the end of this year. The Company is in financial condition, having sufficient funds on hand to complete the tunnel, with no debts of any description.

The Officers and Directors of the Company are the following well known Los Angeles men: C. J. Lehman, president, W. C. Hunt, vice-president, G. W. Beck, secretary and treasurer, J. E. Brink, H. F. Norcross and J. W. Oakley, who have placed the development of the property in charge of Mr. Percy H. McMahon, who has had 10 years experience in the district in social active superintending of dividend paying mines there, and who has always had great confidence in the future of Randburg. He expects shortly to make a dividend payer out of the Consolidated Mines Company.

We urge you to act promptly—our interests in the matter is in directing our clients to make an investment, which may be made while there is a chance to make large profits with small investment. You understand this stock is and has been for many months listed on the L. A. Stock Exchange and has lately become the most active trader, thus making your purchase a negotiable investment. There will be no session of the Exchange on Monday (Admission Day) therefore for results get your orders in sometime before 11:30 o'clock Tuesday the 10th. #### Pioneer Passes.

Oscar Todd, a pioneer of Los Angeles, who has been ill for several months, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Fred L. Baker, No. 47 Pasadena avenue, Sunday. OFFICER PREVENTS MURDER.

Sees Two Men Struggling in Early Morning and Interferes After One Is Stabbed.

What is believed to have been an attempted murder was frustrated early this morning when an officer captured W. J. Potts of No. 219 Mountain View avenue. Potts is held in the City Jail and a search is being made for the man who attacked him.

As the officer passed Eighth and San Julian streets he heard a man cry out and saw two figures struggling. The officer ran toward the pair. When they saw him coming they ran away. Potts was weak from loss of blood and was easily overtaken. It was found that he had been stabbed in the wrist.

When questioned, Potts refused to tell the name of the man who assaulted him. At first he denied that he had been attacked and claimed that he had cut his hand on a hatchet which he carried. He finally admitted that he had become involved in a quarrel with a man who tried to kill him.

Potts was under the influence of liquor and will be prosecuted for drunkenness, the police say.

FORTY FEET TO DEATH.

Boy Climbs Pole to See Fireworks Display and Falls to Street—Witnesses Notify Police.

Benjamin Small, 17 years old, of No. 1387 South Olive street, fell from the top of a pole forty feet high to the street last night, and was instantly killed. The accident happened at Pico and Hope streets. The boy, in his eagerness to see a fireworks display, climbed the pole and sat on a cross arm, within a few inches of a high voltage wire. Whether his fall was the result of an electric shock or of losing his balance is not known.

Persons in the vicinity of Hope and Pico streets heard a cry and, looking up, saw the boy falling. The police were notified and an ambulance summoned but life was extinct.

Small had been in the employ of Charles Brock, a plumber at No. 716 South Pico street. The body was removed to Pierce Bros. morgue by order of the coroner.

A Novel Swindle.

The Moscow (N.Y.) police have caught an enterprising swindler who invented a new method of making a living. An inspector of police in casually passing down a street noticed a man passing slips over notices of public auctions and making alterations in their dates. At first he did not interfere, but later arrested the bill poster, who finally confessed that for a considerable time he had been altering the dates of sales in this fashion. This enabled him to attend the sales at the proper dates as practically the only buyer, when he could secure goods at his own price in the absence of competition.

DOGS AS SMUGGLERS.

Ingenious Plan to Use Innocent Animals for Smuggling Silk and Opium.

A Seattle dispatch says the customs officers have recently discovered one of the most clever methods of smuggling opium and silk into this country from across the international boundary line yet known. The smugglers, who were headed by Thomas Smith, now in custody, used trained dogs to carry on the business.

The first inkling that dogs were being used to carry contraband goods from Canada to Washington was when officer Lane of the Bellingham station shot a dog which he saw running through a thick timber near Blaine, Wash. The dog was loaded down with three pounds of opium and a package of rich silk.

Where the dog was headed for and whence he came were mysteries which the officials at once began to ferret out.

Taking a coon dog the officers went to the spot and waited for three days before another dog with a pack saddle was seen. This time there were three dogs loaded. The men let them pass and then followed by the aid of the coon dog. The dogs stopped at a rough cedar shack near the town of Blaine, and the officers arrested Smith, who will be charged with smuggling.

The leather saddles were made after the ones worn in the hospital dogs in the Austrian army. How the smugglers happened to obtain the saddles is a mystery, but it is likely the confederates of the man in jail were well versed in the training of dogs and taught them the trick neatly and knew how to make the spacious saddle.

The Bridge Disaster.

The collapse of the great cantilever bridge on the St. Lawrence was an accident without a parallel. A cantilever bridge in course of construction is by its nature a paradox of mechanics. It appears to violate the very laws of gravity. Now one has fallen and occasioned the most remarkable bridge disaster in history. The bulk of a hundred fairly big bridges, thrust far out over the water, resting as it seemed on nothing, yet bearing the weight of railroad trains and hundreds of tons of material, sheared off bolt after bolt in its straining anchors, snapped beam and girder, and at last went down 180 feet into the river with men clinging to it like flies.

Nothing like it was ever possible in the past; anything like it should be in the future impossible. Was the fault with the method or the material? The masonry has been found intact. The contract for the steel superstructure was in responsible hands. There was suspicion of danger among the workmen who went down to death.—[New York Sun.]

The art supplements which have been issued with the Sunday Times have been bound in an attractive souvenir booklet and thus may be preserved in permanent form by the many who have admired them. The booklet is on sale at The Times counting-room at 25 cents per copy.

DASH OF WILD WEST IN STAGE HOLD-UP.

Dramatic Mimic "Job" by Bandits, Running Gun Fight and Capture by Vaqueros Thrills Crowd at Venice. Court Roped.

THE Governor of Utah had dreams last night that were disturbed by a wild west hold-up, galloping vaqueros, gunpowder and frontier hanging committees. He spent Admission Day with the Vaquero Club at Venice.

It was like these perfectly bully moving pictures that you see around to see at the 5-cent theaters; only more original and thrilling and picturesque.

With all due respect to Gov. John C. Cutler, and duly mindful of two or three interesting speeches that he made, the real hero of the occasion was the old Banning stage coach, which has played oftentimes a strenuous part in the history of the early days of California.

The crowd was just large enough for comfort, without being a mob. The real festivities began when the private car "Hermosa" arrived with the Governor of Utah and his party, which included his wife and daughter, and a member of his military staff. As he appeared on the platform, a thrill of life went through the cavalcade of horsemen, who had been lounging in their cow saddles for half an hour.

An auto was waiting. The Governor of Utah stepped in; a door slammed shut, and before anybody quite knew what was happening, he was whirling down the speedway for Ocean Park and Santa Monica, with a squadron of superb horsemen clattering at his heels—jingling spurs, big bearskin "chaps," whirling excited horses, pistol butts and red handkerchiefs.

After a rapid tour of the beach, the Governor and party were escorted to the ship hotel—the Cabrillo—where an elaborate luncheon was served.

The feature of this was the gorgeous eloquence of Gen. H. A. Pierce, who spoke on the advantages of drinking water. If it had been champagne he had been talking about, D. Webster would have been back in the first-reading class, delivered a short, interesting address, in which he spoke of various business interests which bind him to California. Representatives of both the Venice and Los Angeles Chambers of Commerce answered toasts.

REPUBLICANS.
Taft, 52.
DEMOCRATS.
Bryan, 11.

Roosevelt was first choice of all the Republicans and of two-thirds of the Democrats.

PISTOL ATTACK ON COACH.

Suddenly there came the sharp report of a pistol, followed by a snapping rattle of shots and the peep and smother of the hoots of three galloping horses.

The stage was suddenly attacked from front and rear—and all over.

One vaquero flew straight at the heads of the leaders and brought them back almost on their haunches.

"Big Hutch," obedient to the orders of a desperado at the front wheels on a white horse, stood up in his seat, with his hands full of reins reined on high.

"The express box," hissed the robber, in his most desperate voice.

The spectators saw a little brass-bound box go heaving through the air, crack went Hutch's whip again, and the stage came tearing at a gallop down the pike and disappeared through the front gates in a cloud of dust.

All the robbers threw themselves from their horses and began trying to open the express box, fear at the locks as they might, it resisted their efforts. Then a flash and crash and a little cloud of white smoke. They had shot off the lock.

Tallying of "Times" Scholarship Contest Returns Going Steadily on.

Steadily the work of tallying up the returns from the scholarship contest is going forward, and the final scores will be published tomorrow morning. Not all the subscriptions slips had been entered up at the hour of going to press last night, while the coupon count is still going on, but the manager is confident that the final result will be reached in time to make up the score tonight.

Telegrams are coming in from Arizona and other points urging the announcement of results, but a thoroughly careful count is insisted upon by the management in order that absolute accuracy may be attained. The suspense will be ended at the earliest possible moment.

In the meantime the boys and girls should get rested from the strenuous campaign in order to enjoy to the full the great jubilee of Thursday. Some extra interesting and fascinating details have been arranged, particulars of which will be given in The Times tomorrow. It is sufficient to say that the contestants will simply have the time of their lives on that memorable occasion. The Times will play the role of host and each contestant will be privileged to bring as a guest one friend. This limit must be observed, as the nature of the festivities will not permit a larger number.

"IT'S AN ILL WIND."

Remarkable Shortage in Apple Supply Predicted, but Orange Growers Will Profit by It.

All kinds of apples are exceedingly scarce and the prospect is for extremely high prices. Last season the local storage stock of Bellefonte amounted to 150 carloads; this year it will be less than forty.

Other varieties of apples will not be ready for storage until the middle of October, and as the supply of them will be 40 per cent. less than that of last season, prices, it is stated, will be at least 50 per cent. higher.

The favorite apples here come from Watsonville, and include Bellefonte, Newton pippins, red Pearmain, Smith elder, white winter and Missouri pippins. In addition to these, other storage varieties are the Gahos, Jonathan, Arkansas blacks, black twigs, Ben Davis, and York Imperials, from Colorado; and the Gravstein, Spitzenberg, Kings and Wolf Rivers, from Oregon. These will be shipped by October 15.

The local shortage of apples will be the greater because a large part of the home crop has been sold to eastern markets at big prices.

There will be few eastern apples on the local market this year, but the limited supply will command fancy figures because of superior color and flavor.

The apple shortage will increase the demand for oranges, which will bring 50 cents a box more than usual this season, fruit dealers say.

PLUM FOR WADE.

Tax Collector's Deputy to Succeed Don Chick as Superintendent of County Poor Farm.

Andrew F. Wade, deputy to County Tax Collector Welch, is slated to succeed the late Don Chick as superintendent of the Poor Farm. He admitted last night that the appointment had been tendered him, and said he had accepted. He will qualify today and will take up his new duties at once.

It will be necessary for the Supervisors to ratify the appointment at their meeting today, but the whole affair is settled, and the appointee is going about his arrangements accordingly. Said he last night:

"Yes, I have been offered the place and have told the boys that it is all right. They are anxious to have me qualify at once, as it is not thought desirable to have the office remain vacant. I shall therefore comply with the necessary formalities tomorrow and prepare to take up the work of my new position."

Catkins Campers Annoyed by Nocturnal Concerts of Deserted Felines.

Hungry Animals Eat Birds.

Pussy's walls are long and loud at Tent City, Catalina Island. Deserted Thomas cats and forlorn lady felines are making night hideous with their doleful plaints. The question of carrying a tribe of ownerless cats has become a problem for the island authorities. It appears that many campers who brought cats with them failed to take the animals home again.

Miss Blanche Sperrin, who is now at Catalina, says she counted thirty stray cats yesterday. Some have become wild and are feeding upon the song birds and squirrels.

The chorus of meows which ascends nightly and rends the atmosphere of the enchanted isle is causing the dwellers there to tear their hair, and the solution of the cat problem is anxiously awaited.

Why cat owners should desire to leave their pets on the island is an unanswered question. People who think enough of a cat to take it with them on a vacation are supposed to be thoughtful enough to carry pussy home.

Five Injured in Salt Lake Wreck on Desert

Three from Los Angeles, Two from Pasadena.

Accidents on the Santa Fe, General Tie-up.

Five persons were injured in a Salt Lake wreck on the Santa Fe near Barstow yesterday afternoon, when the Los Angeles Limited went into the ditch. They are:

C. C. DESMOND, No. 52 South Alvarado street, cut on arms and nose by flying glass.

MISS A. ODELL, Los Angeles, cut on forehead by flying glass.

MISS FLORENCE BENNETT, Pasadena, hand sprained.

MARK LONG, baggageman, Los Angeles, bruised on chest and shoulders.

Los Angeles Limited, No. 1, which left this city yesterday morning at 10 o'clock on the Salt Lake, was ditched on the Santa Fe between Cottonwood and Barstow shortly before 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The entire train went down, and the observation car turned turtle. Five passengers are known to have been injured.

Dr. C. D. Dickey of Salt Lake, surgeon at Riverdale, was summoned to assist the Barstow surgeon in caring for those who were hurt.

The wreck occurred on a stretch of track which has recently been rehabilitated, and it is supposed softness of the roadbed was responsible. Only the fact that the train was proceeding slowly prevented a frightful accident. The train was in charge of Conductor Sparks and Engineer Eugene Wells, two of the oldest employees of the company. Wells is the engineer who took the first passenger train over the Salt Lake after its completion.

KNOWN IN FIVE MINUTES.

Within five minutes after the Los Angeles office had learned of it through the telephone, a new device which the company has recently installed. This enabled the crew to at once attach a telephone apparatus to the telegraph wire and phone details to headquarters.

Long, the baggageman was caught beneath a pile of trunks in his car and was severely bruised. He was thrown forcibly against the side of the car and pinned down by a heavy trunk, while other baggage was pitched upon him.

All the rest of the injured, with the exception of Williams, were in the buffet car. This car turned over and glass flew in all directions. The passengers were piled in a mass, and most of the injuries resulted from contact with the glass. None is reported seriously hurt.

GENERAL TIE-UP.

The Santa Fe east-bound limited is delayed at Cottonwood, and all west-bound passenger trains on the Santa Fe and Salt Lake are held up at Barstow while the Santa Fe wrecker is building a shoofly about the wreck. It is expected to have the line opened this morning, when the work of picking up the wrecked train will proceed.

The Salt Lake wrecker was picking up the wreck of a Santa Fe gravel train at Etiwanda last night. It met with difficulty shortly before 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. This effectively ties up the Santa Fe between San Bernardino and Los Angeles on the main line, all trains being sent into this city by way of Orange.

An accident to the engine on a turntable in this city last evening tied up the Santa Fe overland scheduled to leave for the East last night. The engine dropped into the turntable pit and all the company's passenger engines were locked up in the roundhouse. The wreck of a Santa Fe gravel train on the Tulelake branch yesterday afternoon tied up traffic between San Bernardino and San Jacinto points.

The Salt Lake sent a substitute train from this city last night to continue east with the passengers of the wrecked train, the engine and every car of which are in the ditch.

The Los Angeles Limited, the Salt Lake's crack train, carried seven cars, including standard and tourist sleepers. The passenger list was heavy for this season of the year.

The question of carrying a tribe of ownerless cats has become a problem for the island authorities. It appears that many campers who brought cats with them failed to take the animals home again.

Miss Blanche Sperrin, who is now at Catalina, says she counted thirty stray cats yesterday. Some have become wild and are feeding upon the song birds and squirrels.

The chorus of meows which ascends nightly and rends the atmosphere of the enchanted isle is causing the dwellers there to tear their hair, and the solution of the cat problem is anxiously awaited.

Why cat owners should desire to leave their pets on the island is an unanswered question. People who think enough of a cat to take it with them on a vacation are supposed to be thoughtful enough to carry pussy home.

Five Injured in Salt Lake Wreck on Desert

Three from Los Angeles, Two from Pasadena.

Accidents on the Santa Fe, General Tie-up.

Five persons were injured in a Salt Lake wreck on the Santa Fe near Barstow yesterday afternoon, when the Los Angeles Limited went into the ditch. They are:

C. C. DESMOND, No. 52 South Alvarado street, cut on arms and nose by flying glass.

MISS A. ODELL, Los Angeles, cut on forehead by flying glass.

MISS FLORENCE BENNETT, Pasadena, hand sprained.

MARK LONG, baggageman, Los Angeles, bruised on chest and shoulders.

Los Angeles Limited, No. 1, which left this city yesterday morning at 10 o'clock on the Salt Lake, was ditched on the Santa Fe between Cottonwood and Barstow shortly before 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The entire train went down, and the observation car turned turtle. Five passengers are known to have been injured.

Dr. C. D. Dickey of Salt Lake, surgeon at Riverdale, was summoned to assist the Barstow surgeon in caring for those who were hurt.

The wreck occurred on a stretch of track which has recently been rehabilitated, and it is supposed softness of the roadbed was responsible. Only the fact that the train was proceeding slowly prevented a frightful accident. The train was in charge of Conductor Sparks and Engineer Eugene Wells, two of the oldest employees of the company. Wells is the engineer who took

GENERAL TIE-UP.

The Santa Fe east-bound limited is delayed at Cottonwood, and all west-bound passenger trains on the Santa Fe and Salt Lake are held up at Barstow while the Santa Fe wrecker is building a shoofly about the wreck. It is expected to have the line opened this morning, when the work of picking up the wrecked train will proceed.

The Salt Lake wrecker was picking up the wreck of a Santa Fe gravel train at Etiwanda last night. It met with difficulty shortly before 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. This effectively ties up the Santa Fe between San Bernardino and Los Angeles on the main line, all trains being sent into this city by way of Orange.

An accident to the engine on a turntable in this city last evening tied up the Santa Fe overland scheduled to leave for the East last night. The engine dropped into the turntable pit and all the company's passenger engines were locked up in the roundhouse. The wreck of a Santa Fe gravel train on the Tulelake branch yesterday afternoon tied up traffic between San Bernardino and San Jacinto points.

The Salt Lake sent a substitute train from this city last night to continue east with the passengers of the wrecked train, the engine and every car of which are in the ditch.

The Los Angeles Limited, the Salt Lake's crack train, carried seven cars, including standard and tourist sleepers. The passenger list was heavy for this season of the year.

Pussy's walls are long and loud at Tent City, Catalina Island. Deserted Thomas cats and forlorn lady felines are making night hideous with their doleful plaints. The question of carrying a tribe of ownerless cats has become a problem for the island authorities. It appears that many campers who brought cats with them failed to take the animals home again.

Much to Los Angeles.Old Prospector Tells About Jerome District.

El Barrett, a pioneer prospector who has spent the last thirty years in Arizona, is in Los Angeles, a guest at the Alexandria. He says that owing to the proximity of other properties to the copper mine of Senator Clark, the United Verde, he expects to see lively times in the Jerome district, which may almost duplicate the famous fight between Augustus Heine, of Butte, Mont., and the Amalgamated Copper Company.

El Barrett, who expects to develop a duplicate of the Jerome underground copper mine in Arizona.

"In Butte," says Mr. Barrett, "there was an underground warfare between the Amalgamated and Heine, over the manner in which the veins of ore were followed. It was claimed that the ore was followed into the property of Heine by the Amalgamated, and the property of the Amalgamated was seemingly invaded by Heine. In the Jerome district I confidently expect to see clashes between the United Verde, the Jerome Verde and other adjoining properties.

"But having that said," Barrett continued, "you people in Los Angeles do not begin to realize the great copper deposits in Arizona. You have heard so much of gold mines that you think the whole wealth of the world is in gold mines.

"These gold mines are just grass-roots. They skim off the surface and then think that they have worked their claims to a fine end. They make me tired with their continued ranting about their gold mines. To tell the truth, gold mines probably have been a great help to Los Angeles, but the benefits derived from these mines cannot be compared with that which the great copper mines of the Southwest will bring to this city. I tell you that there is more copper in the hills of Arizona than there exists in all other copper districts in the world combined and it will all be tributary to Los Angeles.

JEROME DISTRICT BOOSTED.
"In the Jerome district alone, there is enough copper in the United Verde, the Jerome Verde and other properties to almost equal the entire production of the copper mines of Montana. They have water in the Jerome district and do not have to overcome such difficulties as were experienced in Montana. The sulphide ore is nearer the surface, too, and they have already been encountered."

After his first visit to Arizona, thirty years ago, Barrett came back into California. Later he returned to Arizona and was one of the discoverers of the original Verde shaft. Barrett did not share in the millions taken out of the mine and devoted his attention to further prospecting. For several years he searched for gold and then turned to his first love, copper.

From experience he knew that below the gold belt copper usually was found. Learning that the Verde shaft was idle, he secured backing and took up claims adjoining the Clark property. The Jerome Verde Company was organized and Barrett was made superintendent of it. Shafts were sunk parallel to those of the United Verde.

LOS ANGELES THEIR MARKET.
"All of the miners of Arizona are coming to Los Angeles for machinery," said the miner. "I want that you will spend ten times as much on the copper mines of Arizona as is spent on all of the gold mines of Nevada. I am not knocking Nevada, but I do not think much of any gold mine as a permanent adjunct to a city's growth. Gold mines are good sometimes, but commend me to copper mine as a permanent fixture."

While Barrett was in Los Angeles he negotiated with two local companies for $50,000 worth of machinery for his concern and says that this is "only a starter." Scores of copper mines in Arizona are just beginning to be paying ventures, according to Barrett, and are spending their money for supplies in this city.

He Always Retires Sober and Takes His Boots Off—Climax of Animal Training Reached.

Every horse spends a certain number of hours in sleep but there is only one in the world that takes off his boots, lights a candle and goes to bed like a man. This wonderful equine has been imported from St. Petersburg, and will be one of the great attractions of the Ringling Brothers' circus, when that famed amusement organization opens its engagement in Los Angeles on September 23.

"The Good-night Horse," as the animal is called, made a tremendous sensation in Europe and is no less an object of wonder to Americans. This equine is one of the number of "actors" appearing in a play of a highly domestic order. The scene is the kitchen of Mr. and Mrs. Horan. Mr. Horan comes home from work dressed in hat, coat, boots and trousers. He eats his supper at the table, surrounded by the members of his family. After reading the sporting columns of the newspaper, he discards his hat, pulls the blankets up, comfortably about him, and goes to sleep.

At this point more of the human element is introduced. Mrs. Horan comes into the room and goes through her husband's pockets. Then the curtain falls.

Among the other trained animals in the circus are some very clever pigs which climb ladders, balance on rolling globes and in other ways demonstrate that pigs may have other functions in life than furnishing smoked hams.

GENUINE FORTY-NINER.
Pioche Pioneer Who Saw California Long Ago and Bought Her Gold Seeing City's Sights.

On a brief visit to Los Angeles is a genuine "Forty-Niner," John O. Gilbert of Pioche, Nev., who trekked across the plains, mountains and deserts in the early days and spent many years in the search for gold among the mountains of California.

Gilbert reached California in the year of '49, and he remained on the Coast until 1860, when he started on a prospecting tour which led him across Nevada. He reached the then famous camp of Pioche in 1874. He remained there since, and has become interested in several valuable mining properties.

Gilbert reached the city yesterday in company with E. F. Prudential, general manager of the Lyon McKinney Smith Company at Pioche and Mr. Prudential's father-in-law, J. H. Penland, and both are guests at the Prudential home on W. Fifth street. This is their first trip to Los Angeles, and they express their amazement at the sights of the metropolis of the Southwest.

Prudential states that graders for the new Salt Lake line from California are now within two miles of Pioche, that rails are being laid out of Panama, and that the road will be constructed and in complete operation to Pioche within six weeks. In the meantime an immense amount of ore is being placed on dumps adjacent to the railroad grade, ready for shipment as soon as the road is ready.

Prudential will leave for Pioche today, but he plans to return for the banquet to be given September 16 by the Los Angeles and Nevada Mining Exchange, of which he is a member.

UNDERWRITERS COMING HERE.
Tiresless Local Delegation Wins for Los Angeles the Next Convention of National Association.

John W. Whittington, chairman of the delegation which secured for Los Angeles the 1928 convention of Life Underwriters arrived in Los Angeles yesterday from Toronto. The decision to hold the convention in this city was made only after a strenuous fight on the part of Mr. Whittington, John Norris of Pasadena, and C. E. Montgomery of Los Angeles. Chicago struggled hard for the favor.

The delegation from this city was exceedingly active. From the moment the Toronto convention opened they canvassed for votes for this city. Badges, watch-fobs, miniature boxes of oranges, and other souvenirs of Los Angeles were distributed, until everybody knew that Los Angeles was after something. When it was decided to hold the next convention here the Los Angeles delegation was heartily cheered.

The second day of the convention Whittington was made vice-president of the National Association, but he still found time to set forth the advantages of Los Angeles.

When the fight for the next meeting place was almost over, and it looked as if Chicago would win, by courtesy of the convention Mr. Whittington was granted extra time. So effective was his argument that he swung doubtful ones to his side.

RIPLINGER REPORTED SICK.
John Ripplinger, former controller of Seattle, charged with having embezzled nearly $70,000 and fled to Honduras, is reported very ill from malaria. Ripplinger is well known in this city, and his wife has been living here in seclusion since her husband's departure. Ripplinger is said to have suffered for a year past with an abscess and complications set in that rendered him an easy prey to the attack of tropical malaria. His friends in Seattle have written him to return north at any cost and stand trial rather than die in Honduras without any attempt to face the charges made against him.

REPORTS FROM CORRESPONDENTS OF THE TIMES.

Electric Lines MAY RADIATE.

HOPE GO. The electric lines in the valley were a surprise to him as he found that had been damaged either by the fire or the mid-air. The powder mill has been the worst of the apple orchards, and after talking with Mr. Clark, who owns extensive orchards, agreed with him in the treatment he gives the trees.

Mr. Clark has been working on the theory that the electric lines in the valley destroy the fruit buds for the next season, and has been using as a remedy the Bordeaux mixture which it does the work required. If Mr. Clark's theory is correct the problem of the valley is solved in a great extent. Of the powder mill on onions, Mr. Clark says that the department has been solving the Bordeaux mixture was the proper solution to use.

LOMPOC NOTES. There is rejoicing by the people that the supervisors have accepted the bid of the Merced Electric Bridge Company for the erection of an all-steel bridge to be placed over the Santa Ynez River. The bridge is to cost $22,544 and is to be completed before the winter rains commence.

What is considered to be the greatest joy of the valley here has just been sacking from ten acres of land that is owned by Frank Lewis. The ten acres yielded 350 bags of red mustard.

At the last meeting of the City Council the tax levy for the year was fixed at 75 cents on the $100 valuation, being for the general fund and 15 cents for the maintenance of a public library. The rate last year was 50 cents.

Venice villas are convenient. GRAND BOULEVARD. Work Progressing Rapidly and Contractors Let on Road by Ocean to the South.

OCEANIDE, Sept. 9.—The Los Angeles-San Diego boulevard is now an assured fact, the contracts for bridges being already let, and the roadway is under construction. The portion of the road between Delmar and Oceanide is now being completed, and the road is already completed between Delmar and San Diego county's chief city.

IN ORANGE COUNTY, THE SUPERVISORS HAVE BEEN MAKING A LINE OF CONTRACTS FOR BRIDGES TO THE AMOUNT OF $11,000 ARE IN THE HANDS OF THE CONTRACTORS. THE PORTION OF THE ROAD BETWEEN DELMAR AND OCEANIDE IS NOW BEING COMPLETED, AND THE ROAD IS ALREADY COMPLETED BETWEEN DELMAR AND SAN DIEGO COUNTY'S CHIEF CITY.

TAKING PRECAUTIONS. SAN DIEGO, Sept. 9.—The bubonic plague stands at the head of the list of diseases to be feared in San Diego, so strict are the quarantine regulations. All vessels from San Francisco must be fumigated before they are allowed to leave the station here, unless they have been fumigated before leaving San Francisco.

BROKERAGE FIRM CLOSES DOORS. EASTERN CREDITORS SAID TO BE GIVEN PREFERENCE. Local Sufferers Form Permanent Organization and Fight Over Assignments in on-Copper Queen Smelter Party Out of Commission—Union Trouble-makers Very Active.

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES. BISHOP (ARIZ.) Sept. 9.—Local trading in mining stocks has been paralyzed by the failure of the copper principal brokerage firm, Dwyer & Overlock. It is understood that the assignment was determined upon after midnight Wednesday. By daylight, with completed papers, Harry Dwyer, secretary and treasurer of the concern, was in Tombstone, with attorney, J. E. Morrison of Bisbee, and within a couple of hours more they had filed the necessary bond and had secured the appointment of Morrison and R. F. Wood as assignees. Wood has been book-keeper for the firm.

Deep was the trouble when the doors of the firm were not opened that morning. There were charges that preferred individuals in the East had been settled with, at the expense of local creditors. These creditors, to the number of twenty-two, held a meeting, with Neil E. Bailey of Naco as chairman, and determined to form a permanent organization. They have filed a protest against the appointment of Morrison and Wood, and have secured a temporary injunction, whereby the assignees are prohibited from acting as such until review of the case is had before Judge Doan in Tombstone.

At first the creditors made no move, but later, when it was learned that the firm had been liquidated, they decided to take action. The firm of Dwyer & Overlock was incorporated with capital stock of $25,000, supposed to be all paid in except $3000. It has been doing business for about two years, and had large patronage. Sales of the agency aggregated as high as $5,000 a month during the time of the Denison stock excitement. A few months ago it appears that prices were unable, or unwilling to pay for the stock, and the firm had to shoulder losses on a number of large blocks of stock purchased for others. At the time this is due to the fact that the firm was in the Denison stock excitement. The senior member of the firm, Lem J. Overlock, is one of the wealthiest residents of this section, a pioneer, and highly respected. At present he is supposed to be on the ocean, homeward bound from a trip through Europe. It is believed that he knows nothing of the failure, and that his arrival will clarify the present situation.

BIG SMELTER CRIPPLED. For seven months a movement has been in progress at Douglas, whereby the Western Federation of Labor sought the closing of the great Copper Queen smelter. Something of success appears to have attended the plan, though it has not worked out just as was expected by the plotters. Two of the great furnaces and one of the electric cranes at the smelter have been put out of commission, "for repairs," the management announces. It is announced also that, though a number of workmen will have to be dropped for a time, men with families will receive preference among those retained. It is to be noted that most of the men who are for unionization are men with families or property. "For repairs," the management announces. It is announced also that, though a number of workmen will have to be dropped for a time, men with families will receive preference among those retained. It is to be noted that most of the men who are for unionization are men with families or property.

TROUBLE BREEDERS AT WORK.

The Western Federation has adopted new tactics in Arizona. Men in a number of southern camps, notably Douglas, Morenci and Ray, are stirring up trouble among the Mexican miners and laborers, urging them to strike for the same wages paid to Americans. As a rule, a Mexican is paid 50 cents a day less than an American or European miner.

From Cananea has come an unauthenticated story to the effect that a discharged Mexican policeman, armed with a rifle and primed with medical resister, killed two members of the police force and fatally wounded a third. He is reported to have escaped.

MEXICAN HELPER.

At Johnson Camp, northeast of Benson, a French miner was "held up" near his cabin by three men and robbed of $10. The victim secured his rifle and within a few minutes had overhauled the highwaymen. In the melee, one of the latter was shot in the shoulder and the Frenchman was taken, though not seriously. The robbers escaped.

Thursday, Peter Tetler, a miner in the Spray mine of the Copper Queen group, fell to his death on the 500-foot level. The timber on which he was working in the top of a stope slipped.

CRUSHED TO DEATH.

Yesterday, Pedro Vasquez, a machinist's helper in the employ of the El Paso and Southwestern Railroad Company, was crushed to death between a steel ore car and a backing locomotive. Vasquez and a car repairer, named McKay, were standing on the top of the engine, the American car jumped just in time to save his own life.

Oscar Carlson, master mechanic for the Calumet and Hecla Company, is at the company's hospital. His leg is broken in three places. By the slipping of a roller he was thrown beneath a freight dynamo, which was being put into place, and against a generator that was in operation at the time.

Nearly all the front porches of Bisbee overlook from a considerable height the back yards of the houses in front. Thus it happened that when Paul Paul learned that his neighbor's porch railing was being precipitated twenty feet. When taken to the hospital he was found to be badly hurt that little boy is expressed of saving his life. He is 55 years old and for twenty-three years has been a miner in this district.

Stephen Johnson, aged 75 years, for twenty years a blacksmith in the employ of the Copper Queen Company, was found dead in bed yesterday. He had expired at least two days before the body was discovered. A coroner's jury decided that death came from natural causes.

Manuel Sarabia, the alleged revolutionist, struggled across the border by Douglas officers into the hands of Mexican officials, has been taken to the United States. His work was made known by the surrender of the prisoner to the Governor of Arizona on demand of Gov. Kimberly of Arizona. Sarabia has sued for $25,000 damages, the defendants being Constable S. J. Shropshire, the United States and Surety Company of San Francisco, Pa. (which has bonded Shropshire), Mexican Consul Antonio Mass, Arizona Ranger Sam Ely, and J. P. Dowdell, J. L. Stambaugh and Lee Thompson—all supposed to have been implicated in getting Sarabia across the international line in an automobile.

FORBIDS GAMBLING.

There is a report that the first edict of Gen. Luis Torres, on assuming the chair of Governor of Sonora, was for the suppression of all games of chance within the State. As a result, it is possible that the great gambling flats at Nogales and Magdalena will be deprived of their chief attraction.

The public schools of Bisbee resume their sessions next Tuesday. Application has been made at Douglas for the chartering of a lodge of the Masonic Order of the Eastern Star.

M. J. Cunningham, a Bisbee banker, has been appointed District Deputy for the order of Elks within Arizona.

PRESIDENT WILL BE NEUTRAL.

Secretary Loeb Says If the Executive Speaks at Cleveland He Will Not Mention Mayoralty Race.

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M. OSTER BAY, Sept. 9.—President Roosevelt will take no part in the mayoralty contest at Cleveland. This was made plain by Secretary Loeb today.

The Secretary said that if the President spoke at Cleveland, he would have nothing to say regarding the mayoralty race.

Women Avoid Operations

When a woman suffering from female trouble is told that an operation is necessary, it, of course, frightens her.

The very thought of the hospital, the operating table and the knife strikes terror to her heart.

It is quite true that these troubles may reach a stage where an operation is the only resource, but a great many women have been cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound after an operation had been decided upon as the only cure.

The strongest and most grateful statements possible to make come from women who by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made from native roots and herbs, have escaped serious operations, as made from Mrs. Moore's case, of 307 W. 5th St., N. Y. She writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has cured me of the very worst form of female trouble and I wish to express to you my deepest gratitude. I suffered intensely for two years so that I was unable to attend to my duties and was a burden to my family. I feared and dreaded with only temporary relief and constantly objecting to an operation which I was advised to undergo. I decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I am now in better health than I have been for many years.

This and other such cases should encourage every woman to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before she submits to an operation.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation to Women

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. From the symptoms given, the trouble may be located and the quickest and surest way of recovery advised.

Men's Diseases Cured TO STAY Cured

Different doctors have different ideas in regard to cures. Some call a suppression of symptoms a cure. They do for cure effects and claim that the disease is permanently cured. But the real ailment remains, and will bring the real symptoms back again, perhaps in the same or worse condition. I claim that nothing less than complete eradication of disease can be a real cure. I treat to remove the disease, and not merely the symptoms. I search out every root cause of an ailment, and I cure to stay cured.

Weakness

I not only cure "weakness" promptly, but I employ the only treatment that can possibly cure this disease permanently. It is a system of local treatment entirely original with me, and is employed by no physician other than myself. This may seem a bold assertion, but it is just as substantial as it is true. I have cured thousands of cases of local inflammation or congestion, and a radical cure is merely a matter of restoring normal conditions throughout the organic system, and this I accomplish thoroughly and with absolute certainty.

Stricture

My treatment for stricture is entirely original of surgery. A complete cure is accomplished without cutting or dilating. All growths and obstructions in the passage are dissolved, the membrane are detached, and all irritation or congestion removed.

Specific Blood Poison

I cure this leprous disease completely. The system is thoroughly cleansed and every poisonous taint removed. Now he can choose a life of health and happiness, and all is accomplished by the use of harmless, blood-cleansing remedies. Do not submit to the dangerous mineral doing commonly indulged in. Such treatment merely obscures the symptoms.

Varicocele, Cured Without Cutting

The time when every man afflicted with varicocele had no choice other than to allow the disease to go on undermining his power and health or submit to a surgical operation. Now he can choose a life of health and happiness, and all is accomplished by the use of harmless, blood-cleansing remedies. Do not submit to the dangerous mineral doing commonly indulged in. Such treatment merely obscures the symptoms.

What Kind Of A Man Are You?

Are you a strong man, full of strength, courage and determination; the kind that laughs at reverses and knows no such word as "fail"? Or do you belong to that weak-kneed class, who are fearful, dependent and gloomy, and who fall in everything they undertake to do?

If you belong to the latter you know you were not always this way. You can recall the time when you were as full of strength, courage and confidence as any man of your age.

You know the reason for this breakdown, too. That secret trouble you have is sapping the strength from your body, and it is going to leave you a physical wreck on the threshold of the next years of your life. If you don't attend to it at once,

Your Case is a Puzzle to Some

Don't make the mistake of thinking that any specialist can cure this trouble, for 99 out of 100 are so sure that they are right that they will not listen to any other man's advice. I don't think there is a man in my profession that understands this trouble as I do. I have seen and treated it successfully under all conditions. I know how to search out the real cause and when this is done there can be no mistake.

If you are troubled with any of the following, or some combination of them, you can come to me with confidence, knowing that you will receive only what your case demands and nothing else.

Consultation and Examination Free

I give you free consultation and examination for the purpose of showing you how well I know your trouble. Most specialists charge for it.

MY FEE IS $12.50 TO CURE MEN PAY WHEN CURED

There can be no comparison between the ability of the ordinary physician and that of the trained and scientific specialist. The former is a generalist, and he can cure the whole field of medicine and surgery, because he is not in any particular class of this and that. I do not scatter my faculties, but I concentrate them on disease and weakness peculiar to men. I have treated scores of such cases for me. I have cured the best men of San Francisco and vicinity, and my failures are an unpleasant result has been reported.

"WEAKNESS" No man who stimulates himself by thorough exercise, for the removal of conditions responsible for the functional degeneration. "Weakness" is merely a symptom of an "ailing" or "depressed" condition, and under my original local treatment the gland is promptly reduced to its normal state and complete functional activity is restored.

DO YOU SEEK A QUIET LIFE?

City Council Offers Jail to the Highest Bidder.

References Given as to Its Being Safe Retreat.

Purchaser Gets Ghosts and Skeletons Free.

Los Angeles has the unique distinction of being the only city in the world with an up-to-date jail on the real estate market. The jail is to be sold and the city fathers are waiting for the day when the highest bidder shall come forward and ask for the keys.

The jail is too small to hold the city's prisoners. The tanks are crowded most of the time and the necessity of a new building has been made so evident to the Council that it is only a matter of time before a bigger lock-up will be provided.

But in the meantime there is a good deal of amateur real estate work being done by the police officers. Every man on the force is anxious to have the jail sold. If a big, red-headed policeman stops at your back door some morning and taking off his helmet, remarks in a pleading tone: "Please, sir, would you be so kind as to buy a little jail, this morning?" turn down the proposition carefully for this jail is to be cheap.

A man desirous of breaking into society would find this jail particularly well adapted to his needs. In the first place, there are plenty of ghosts in it. It is reported by the police officers that the ghost walks once a month. No well regulated family is society is acceptable unless it has one or more ghosts.

As a place of romance, too, this jail is a "peach." There are skeletons in every closet—skeletons of all sizes and kinds, cut to fit the taste of any family and with histories ranging from murder to petty larceny.

Besides there are other interesting things to be seen in the jail at night. This is vouched for by the jailer, who says that he can produce affidavits to this effect from any number of men who have spent a night or two in the drunk tank.

For business purposes, furthermore, the jail is first class, having been used for years as a package-delivery station.

Young men have languished within its walls at the rate of 12 or 13 a day. This would be of interest to some wealthy young women with morbid tendencies, who could walk the halls and think of those and young languishers.

At times the jail is a fair duplicate of the Black Hole of Calcutta. In connection, it may be said, that the police are compiling a short history of last July, when 250 men were crowded into a space intended for only 125. In this little booklet, eight pages are to be devoted to a glowing description of the third day of July, when old Billy Duval spent the night in the jail with the water turned on his head to keep him alive.

For rest, quiet, and as a safe retreat, the jail is said to be unexcelled. Many testimonials to this effect may be had from the police on application. There is a nice room in the jail wherein pictures of some of the best-known people of the day are kept. These works of art are unlike those in other galleries. Cards go with each picture and tell spicy bits about the parties photographed, including a little detail of the body. This system would create a sensation if introduced into society.

The Receiving Hospital, could it speak, would tell many stories, romantic and otherwise. When the building has been turned over to the highest bidder it is almost certain that at night the ghosts of police surgeons playing cribbage to see who buys the next watermelon will be seen.

Also, there is a modern, up-to-date, magnificent electric patrol (this description from the pamphlet furnished the City Council some months ago) which will go with the jail, which system The patrol died of spark failure two weeks after it was bought, but it is highly ornamental and bears the crest of arms of the city.

As a special inducement, Detective Tom Ziegler has made known his willingness to donate his trophies and a trophy to be hung on the walls of the building as a relic of the days when "injuns" scalped the gringos in the city streets.

A picture of Jaffer McCauley, a modern and thoroughly guaranteed "blind pig" in the station cellar, three optimum pipes and four E-cent stars which Chief Kern hasn't yet been able to make the members of the Police Commission accept, will be thrown in with the jail.

RESCUED FROM TOMB

Laborer Buried by Caving in of Trench
but Sustains Not Even a Bruise.

Peter Gogo, a laborer, was rescued unharmed from a living tomb on the line of the outfall sewer, yesterday. For more than an hour he was buried beneath ten feet of earth and gravel. His companions worked desperately to extricate him, and when their shovels struck against his body, they were surprised to hear him call out that he was all right.

Gogo was employed in dressing the sides of a deep excavation when the walls collapsed. He escaped without even a bruise.

CHANGES IN THE EMBASSY.

As a result of Hon. Enrique Creel's leave of absence from the embassy at Washington, several changes have been made in the Mexican diplomatic corps. During Ambassador Creel's recent visit in this city, he stated that Minister Godoy would be in charge of the embassy at Washington. Luis G. Pardo, former introducer of ambassadors at Mexico City, will be given the post of Charge d'Affaires to Cuba. Alfredo Barron, second secretary of the Mexican legation in London, will assume the former position of Pardo. If Creel decides upon remaining permanently in Chihuahua, as its Governor, it is probable that Minister Godoy will be appointed Mexican Ambassador to the United States. Gov. Creel has a three months' leave of absence from Washington, and he may return to the Capital to finish out his term of appointment.

MR. HUNTINGTON GOES EAST.

H. E. Huntington, the master of the electric railway systems of Los Angeles and vicinity, left last night for the East. No definite period for his absence was given, except that he will be away about three weeks. It is understood, however, that important matters bearing upon the further extension of the great trolley systems of Mr. Huntington called him East, and may cause a short trip to Europe. His decision to leave for the East is said to have been arrived at suddenly.

DASH OF WILD WEST.

contents, came a chorus of wild whoops from the direction in which the stage had disappeared. A company of cow punchers, riding pinnish, shooting as they rode, were to the rescue.

For the space of half a dozen shots the marauders attempted to return the fire; then made a scramble for their horses. There began a running fight that tingled with excitement. Just as the robbers were making the brow of the little hill, one of them was seen to pitch off head foremost and roll helplessly to the ground.

This was J. S. Hendrickson, the special officer, who shot the famous porch climber last year. His fall from the horse was so realistic that half the people of the audience still believe he was severely wounded.

His splendid white charger, which is trained to follow him about like a dog, looked around, bewildered, as he fell; trotted off a little way, then turned back, puzzled to see him lying on the ground, but trembling with excitement with the yell and the shooting. At last, pausing and trotting out and pausing, the white horse disappeared with the crowd over the hill.

FRONTIER TRIAL.

Presently the cowboys came back with two highwaymen—Jim Bean and H. A. Hill—bound and tied in their saddles.

The old stage came rolling back, with a great cracking of whips and tramp and prance of steeds. This time it had as passengers Justice E. A. Pierce and Lawyer William Crawford, who were to conduct the frontier trial.

The judge was an imposing figure, with a black silk gown, and the long white curled wig of an English jurist. The cowboys were led out, dismounted and the court banged with a bang starter for order.

Arier was produced from somewhere, and he opened the court very solemnly with a ponderous and sonorous "Hear ye; hear ye."

Hutch rose up in his stage seat and accused the prisoners of having held up a stage and robbed the express box.

"And," he said gravely, "shot me through and through."

The court looked at Hutch's ample proportions and studied the theoretical travels of the bullet that shot him through and through.

"Where did he find the powder that could do it?" he asked, respectfully.

Attorney Crawford made for his client the somewhat humorous plea of "guilty—demanding an immediate trial and standing ready to prove an alibi."

Just as the court demanded the evidence, the crowd had an unlocked-for sensation. Hendrickson, come to life again, prodded his excited little white horse, his train horse settled holding two extra air-shooters, extended in one of his hands.

"Your Honor," he said, "these two guns were found on the prisoners."

Suddenly he wheeled, like a flash and handed one gun to each prisoner.

"Hold up the crowd, boys, while I cover the court," he yelled. And the judge dashed down the muzzle of the gun that got the porch climber in Chester Place. The robbers forced back the crowd. It was so real your hair stood on end.

The two accused robbers rushed for their horses; leaped with a single bound onto the saddles, and burst through the crowd. When they were clear, Hendrickson's little white charger whirled around on his hind legs and plunged through the crowd and was gone like a flash of light, while the whole cavalcade of cow punchers dashed after in a dust cloud, out of which emerged the sounds of yelling, shots and the rattle of many hoofs.

Hendrickson and his two pals were back after a dramatic interval, tied and trussed with riata around their necks.

"I declare," said the court, "that there is evidence here of a strange conspiracy on the part of officers of the law and prisoners, and I order the prisoners released—not yet."

There was a weak little squeak of a cheer, and the crowd regretted that the amusing game was over. But in the front rank of the riders sat Vaquero E. J. Plummer, one of the most superb of the Spanish horsemen of California. He was slouched in his cow saddle. In one hand he was idly swinging the riata that he had just removed from the neck of the bandit.

"Does the court say we are all conspirators?" he asked, his eyes lit with a laugh.

"Yes," said Justice Pierce, puzzled at this new turn. "Yes, you're all conspirators."

ROPE!

Plummer's right hand gave the merest twist from the wrist outward, and a thin hoop of cowhide rope went singing, with a vicious little swish, through the air.

The court tried to duck his bewigged head out of the way, but the riata was as unerring as a rifle bullet. It settled with a sort of swift gentleness about His Honor's shoulders, pinning his arms by his sides.

Plummer laughed and let the rope snap loose, but two or three men standing by the justice grabbed it and tried to pull Plummer from his saddle. The vaquero merely took a bend around the post, his train horse settled back with a jerk, and the court was glad enough to slip the riata off and escape.

The end of the play was the escape of Plummer, riding like a whirlwind out of sight behind the tent city.

In addition to this drama, there were all manner of Mexican vaquero games on horseback, and a barbecue and mounted tag of war.

This was the first public appearance of the Vaquero Club, whose games take place once a month on the Plummer ranch, near Colonge.
